

OKR 2024

1. Expand skill set by learning new frameworks provided by python to handle backend and make the development more efficient.
  - Taking short course online to earn the professional certificate.
2. Attend technologies conference or workshops related to development technologies to broaden skill set and knowledge base by December 31, 2024.
3. Optimizing intern hiring process
  - probably, giving task/test for the candidate that is related to the skillset required.
4. Expanding the development skills to mobile app development using react native. So that we can accept more projects related to mobile app development. This skill also can be learn by taking short course online as well or workshops.
5. Enhance team communication and collaboration to improve transparency within the team.
6. Make the operation of the development much more smoother. ( Setup projects , CI/CD, Cloud )